Steel Breaks Under 60, but Makes Full Recovery, Responding to Coverings.

NOTE-Quotations reflect clesing sales Monday, April 13.

Monday, April 13.

New York, April 13.—Urgent selling of special stocks held back the whole market for a time today. Speculative interest centered in steel on account of heavy liquidation and short selling.

Discouraging news from the steel trade and reports of further curtailment of working forces on the part of railroads and industrial concerns were used to facilitate short selling, but the movement was small in stocks against which pressure was concentrated.

After Steel find broken under 60 it responded to covering and made a full respected to covering and made a full responded to the remainder of the list hardened with the principal railroads riging is to 1½ above Saturday's close.

Hends were easy.

The early afternoon market was dull and drifting. Runnely continued to lose ground. General Motors gained 7% points on reports of exceptional earnings.

Eylar has been oval of the $150,000 court house and proval of the $150,000 court house and jail bonds voted some time ago, and now the only thing that stands in the way of the erection of the building is the sale of the bonds.

For the purpose of taking up the matter of advertising for sealed bids for the bonds, the county commissioners held a session Monday afternoon. The sale of the bonds will probably occur some time in May. While there has been no definite selection of a site in all probability the present county court court course site will be decided on.

Under the supervision of Miss Myra finkler, the county school districts ave expanded and are asking for core territory, repairs to present school houses, and new school houses. school houses, and new school houses. The commissioners are expecting a petition from the Concordia school district asking for an election to be called on the proposition of issuing $55,000 worth of bonds for school improvements.
